Agenda Item: COMMENTS FROM THE PUBLIC

The Board heard comments from Michelle S. Grant, Barber/Cosmetology Salon Owner of Hair Legacy, regarding her concerns relating to the Designated Manager License. Ms. Grant acknowledged that she is opening a Barber Shop and Cosmetology Salon; and asked if two (2) separate designated managers were necessary. She suggested the dual or unisex license – a single license representing both disciplines.

Shoba Tummala, Owner of Shoba requested the Board consider expanding the District of Columbia's license types - to include "waxing" licenses. Ms. Tummala indicated that Shoba currently has esthetic licensees on staff that provides waxing services only. The Board will research waxing licenses further.

Flair Beauty Institute's Owner, Paula Granados attended the meeting for informational purposes; as she had not previously attended a Board Meeting. She informed the Board that Flair is still making changes to the shop to add equipment to provide a Barber Program.
